

legislative preview webcast

october 3, 2013
6 - 7:15 p.m.

Mark your calendars and plan to participate in SCSBA's annual fall meeting, via online and free of charge, to preview the upcoming legislative session from 6 to 7:15 p.m. on Thursday, October 3. The webcast, featuring the SCSBA legislative team, allows board members and administrators to learn about the education issues likely to be debated by the General Assembly in 2014 from their home or office computer.

several ways to participate

1. Watch it live online as a group at a district school or office location. School boards could invite staff, parents, and other public school advocates to watch and hold their own discussion afterward. A link to the webcast, as well as instructions, will be provided closer to the webcast date.
2. Watch it live, free of charge online at home. A link to the webcast, as well as instructions, will be provided closer to the webcast date.
3. Watch the program afterwards. A link will be emailed to members about two weeks after the program airs online.

highlights

- During the meeting, participants will:
- preview top legislative education issues
  - learn about efforts to reform education funding
  - discuss the November 2014 elections

boardmanship institute

5 points and 1.5 hours credit for attendance and participation
