What breaks your HEART
about the world?
ACT ON THAT.

The collage includes a hand-drawn heart diagram titled "Our Heartbreaks~". The heart is split vertically. The left side is pink and contains the text "Painful", "It's like your heart is being ripped apart", and "Heart of pain". The right side is red and contains the text "Broken heart", "Your heart is broken", "It's like your heart is being ripped apart", and "Heart of pain". Six lightning bolts connect the heart to six thought bubbles around it. The thought bubbles contain the following text: "It's like your heart is being ripped apart", "It's like your heart is being ripped apart", "It's like your heart is being ripped apart", "It's like your heart is being ripped apart", "It's like your heart is being ripped apart", and "It's like your heart is being ripped apart".

The top right image shows a group of students in a computer lab, sitting at desks with laptops, looking at the screens.

The bottom left image shows a handwritten note on a piece of paper, with the text "The world is not what it seems to be. It's a place where you can find anything you want to find." and "The world is not what it seems to be. It's a place where you can find anything you want to find."

The bottom middle image shows a drawing of a heart with the text "The world is not what it seems to be. It's a place where you can find anything you want to find." and "The world is not what it seems to be. It's a place where you can find anything you want to find."

The bottom right image shows a drawing of two faces, one with a sad expression and one with a happy expression, with the text "The world is not what it seems to be. It's a place where you can find anything you want to find." and "The world is not what it seems to be. It's a place where you can find anything you want to find."

A Collaboration That Matters

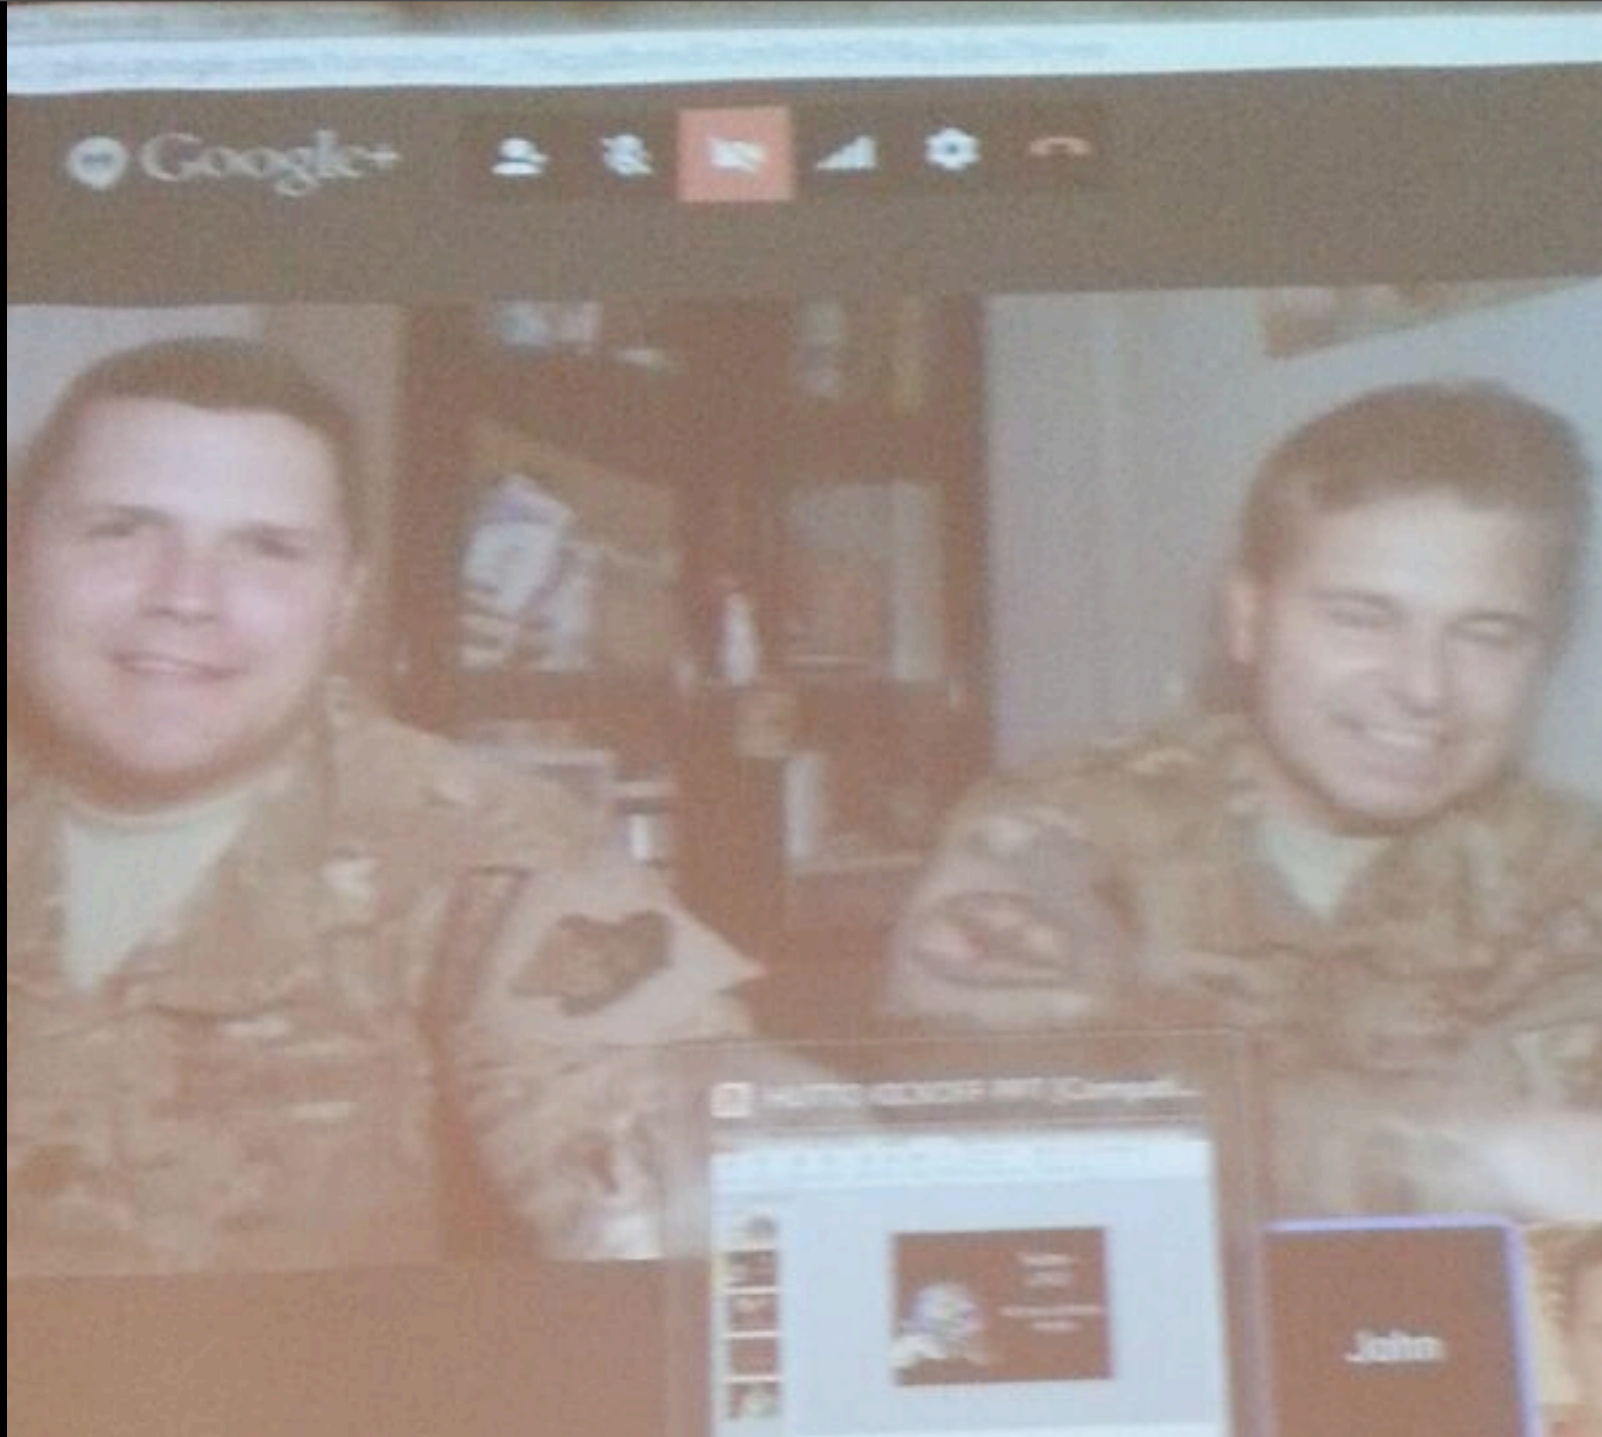

Hi Angela,

We are very eager to hear from and work with the genius learners. Let us know how we can help you, and we know how much this will be able to help us. One of our goals this year is to develop ways to engage and empower students to make their schools safer! I have some ideas about how to help students claim a seat at the table, but I would love some of your students to talk to about them!

Dear Angela,

I found compelling the need for increased involvement and acceptance of women in STEM. I have been in touch with members of the Raytheon's Women's Network to shepherd alignment with teams of EGHS students.

Another student was interested in using unmanned aircraft to support first responders in natural disasters. Our Washington office is exploring UA aircraft. I am trying to coordinate a video conference, site visit or work study opportunity."

Sincerely,
Steve Lamothe
