

Effective Leadership

1. The Board Chair provides leadership for the Board of Trustees.
2. The Board Chair helps to establish a culture where the superintendent can provide effective leadership
3. The Board Chair along with other trustees should inspire the trust and support of all members of the organization.

Great Leaders Are First Terrific Followers

An illustration of a black 3D stick figure standing on a yellow rectangular platform, pointing its right arm towards a group of five smaller black 3D stick figures. The smaller figures are arranged in a line, following the leader. The entire scene is set against a white background within a larger blue and white geometric frame.

“Leadership is a choice, it is not a rank. I know many people at the senior most levels of organizations who are absolutely not leaders, they are authorities, and we do what they say because they have authority over us, but we would not follow them.”
-Simon Sinek

Leadership is a Choice

Three Questions to Ponder

1. Does your board contribute making employees feel safe inside your organization?
2. Do the members of your district trust that your decisions are based on what is best for the organization?
3. Access the space that you and other trustees occupy. Is it that of a “leader” or an “authority”?

Effective Leadership

“Effective leaders communicate to those in an organization that they are valued and appreciated. Do not become so consumed with the mission, that you forget about the people.”
