

POLICY REVIEW SCHEDULE

JANUARY

Section A: Foundations and Basic Commitments
Section K: School/Community/Home Relations

In the spirit of New Year's resolutions and goals, this is a good time to review the district's role in providing public education and working within the community.

FEBRUARY

MARCH

APRIL

Section G: Personnel

Contract renewal is almost here. So, this is a great time to review personnel policies.

MAY

JUNE

Section J: Students
Section I: Instruction

The end of the academic year is an ideal time to review student and instruction policies to make any adjustments for the upcoming school year.

JULY

AUGUST

Section C: General Administration
Section D: Fiscal Management • Section E: Support Services

Following the end of the fiscal year is an excellent time to review the district's finance and support services policies and consider Superintendent performance.

SEPTEMBER

OCTOBER

NOVEMBER

DECEMBER

Section B: School Board Governance and Operations

The beginning of a new school year is an excellent time for the board to review its governance and operations policies.

Section F: Facilities Planning and Development
Section L: Education Agency Relations

These are smaller sections and easier to review during the limited schedule caused by holiday and winter breaks.

Some boards do not meet or only meet once during the month of December.
