

Our Mission

The South Carolina School Boards Association

To be the leading advocate for quality public education and equip school boards through training and services.

