

Our Mission

The South Carolina School Boards Association

The mission of SCSBA is to be the leading advocate for quality public education and equip school boards through training and services.

