

Legislative Advocacy and Delegate Assembly Conference

2027: Year one of the 127th South Carolina General Assembly

Make plans to join school board members from across the state this December in Charleston for the 2026 Legislative Advocacy Conference and Delegate Assembly. With the 2027 legislative session on the horizon, now is the time to get ahead of the curve.

What will be the impact of the November 2026 election? A new governor. New and returning constitutional officers. Which House members will return and who will not? Committee assignments will shift. What issues will rise to the top? How will state and federal decisions shape your district's future?

Hear directly from key state leaders and policy experts for the latest insights into what's coming, what's changing, and how to make your voice count.

Elect officers and set the legislative agenda

Delegates representing South Carolina's governing school district boards will convene for the association's annual business meeting to elect officers and adopt resolutions that will guide the association's advocacy during the 2027 legislative session.

Boardmanship Institute

Board members will receive 5 points and 7 hours of credit for conference attendance and participation.

Conference hotel

Charleston Marriott
170 Lockwood Boulevard
Charleston, SC 29403

Rooms are $152 a night, plus taxes and fees, for single or double occupancy through November 13 or until the room block is full, whichever comes first. Conference attendees must register for the conference before securing rooms within the SCSBA room block.

Registration

The non-refundable registration fee through November 13 is $300 for SCSBA members only. To help prevent duplicate registrations, invoicing and credit card charges, board members and administrators should register through their board secretary. Associate members must register through their SCSBA company contact.
